Sanford, ME. (Friday June 6, 2008) – The Holyoke Blue Sox and Sanford Mainers will have to wait another day to get their 2008 NECBL season underway, as the field at Goodall Park took too much water in the last two days to host this Northern Division match up.

The Blue Sox will travel to Keene to open their season tomorrow evening as they will take on the Swamp Bats at 7 p.m. at Alumni Field. The Mainers will play host to the Lowell All-Americans tomorrow night.

Following an off day on Sunday, the Blue Sox hit the road for two more games, traveling to Lynn, MA to take on the North Shore Navigators on Monday and to Montpelier Recreation Field in Montpelier to the two-time NECBL defending champion Vermont Mountaineers.

A four game homestand ensues for Holyoke as they will host the Keene Swamp Bats for opening night at MacKenzie Stadium on Wednesday June 11th, the game starting at 6:30. They then welcome the Vermont Mountaineers on Thursday June 12th at 6:30. Friday is a special night for the Blue Sox as Team USA comes to Holyoke, for their second of seven stops throughout the NECBL, game time is 6 o'clock. The homestand concludes on Saturday June 14th against the Lowell All-Americans at 6:30.

For more information about sox players, coaching staff, personnel or tickets, visit the team's website at www.holyokesox.com.

The Holyoke Blue Sox appreciate your continued support. GO BLUE SOX!!!
